

David Glickman Biography for Event Brochures (Varying Lengths)

Note to Event Planners: This is NOT David's On-Stage Introduction. These Biographies are for promotional purposes for your printed and on-line materials. David's On-Stage introduction is a different document and much shorter.

200 Words

David Glickman works with healthcare organizations that want to add a combination of valuable content and comic relief to their events in order to make them really fun and memorable.

David has been a professional speaker and entertainer for over 25 years and has presented over 2000 programs. Before transitioning from “show business” to “speech business,” he worked with everyone from Steve Martin to Ellen DeGeneres and appeared on “Evening At The Improv” and several other national television shows.

In the late 1990's, David moved full-time into professional speaking. He specializes in customized workplace humor and is able to “find what's funny” in the many healthcare organizations to whom he has spoken.

In 2011, David received the Certified Speaking Professional designation. This is the highest earned designation awarded by the National Speakers Association, achieved by less than 10% of professional speakers.

In 2016, David was awarded the Council of Peers Award for Excellence (CPAE) and inducted into the Speaker Hall of Fame. This is a lifetime award for speaking excellence and professionalism.

David is also the author of Speaking of Funny: 77 Ways to Add Humor to Any Presentation.

150 Words

David Glickman works with healthcare organizations that want to add a combination of valuable content and comic relief to their events in order to make them really fun and memorable.

David has been a professional speaker and entertainer for over 25 years and has presented over 2000 programs. Before transitioning from “show business” to “speech business,” he worked with everyone from Steve Martin to Ellen DeGeneres.

In the late 1990’s, David moved into professional speaking. He specializes in customized workplace humor and is able to “find what’s funny” in the many healthcare organizations to whom he has spoken.

In 2011, David was named a Certified Speaking Professional—the highest earned designation awarded by the National Speakers Association, achieved by less than 10% of professional speakers. In 2016, David was awarded the Council of Peers Award for Excellence (CPAE) and inducted into the Speaker Hall of Fame.

100 Words

David Glickman works with healthcare organizations that want to add both valuable content and comic relief to their events in order to make them really fun and memorable

A member of the Speaker Hall of Fame, he’s been a professional speaker and entertainer for over 25 years and has presented over 2000 programs. Before transitioning from “show business” to “speech business,” he worked with everyone from Steve Martin to Ellen DeGeneres.

In the late 1990’s, David moved into professional speaking. He specializes in customized humor and is able to “find what’s funny” in the many healthcare groups to whom he’s spoken.

50 Words

Hall of Fame Speaker David Glickman has been a speaker and entertainer for over 25 years and has worked with everyone from Steve Martin to Ellen DeGeneres. He specializes in healthcare humor and is able to “find what’s funny” in the many healthcare organizations to whom he’s spoken.